MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

Morning Meeting of 24 May 1965

Prior to the arrival of the DCI, the DDCI reminded those present of the Agency regulations concerning Agency personnel meeting with journalists.

The DCI suggested that the members of the Morning Meeting brief themselves on the current intelligence publication prior to this Morning Meeting and be prepared to ask questions on current international developments rather than having a current intelligence briefing. R. Jack Smith noted that the briefing that the DCI received at 7:00 a.m. does not have the substantive review of senior analysts and he will report any variance at the 9:00 meeting.

There was a current intelligence briefing.
